Personal Support Whilst Learning

Congratulations on taking a brave step onto a new pathway to learning!

We understand that throughout the course of your learning journey you may experience personal difficulties or life events which make studying more challenging. Our aim is to offer the care, support and guidance required to help you achieve your goal of successfully completing your studies.

If you are studying full time at SCQF Level 6 or below (Further Education FE level) you will be assigned to a Personal Development Advisor (PDA).

Your PDA should be your first point of contact for any support needs, queries or concerns you may have.

Your PDA

We have a team of Personal Development Advisors (PDAs) who will be available to provide advice and guidance to support your personal development while you study with us. The PDA cannot provide academic support but is a focal point for pastoral care and will work in partnership with your academic teams to support you whilst you study.

Your PDA is Tabitha Rattray

If you need to see your PDA during College hours, you should make an appointment via email or in an emergency on the mobile number provided or via the Student Support Centre.

General student support will also be offered through the Student Support Centre which is open during term time from 08.30hrs to 16.30hrs, Monday to Friday.

You can contact me on:

 01463 273208 or Mobile: 07384 246 345

 tabitha.rattray.ic@uhi.ac.uk

If your PDA is not available you can contact our Student Support team
Student.Support.ic@uhi.ac.uk

Sessions could include:

- Induction and orientation information
- Team building activities
- Wellbeing and resilience tools
- Coping with stress strategies
- Employability, careers advice and preparation

Course Work

It is important for your own development that you become a responsible learner. This includes learning to manage your own time, as well as seeking information beyond that which you are given in class. You should allocate the equivalent of at least one full day across the week for personal study and adhere to that, using your diary to plan and prioritise your learning. Poor time management can increase the pressure you experience when assessments are due. Being well organised and setting time aside for personal study will increase your chances of success.

Presentation of work

You should always read over a piece of work before you submit it and, in particular, check for spelling and grammatical mistakes. Your work should have a title including the unit's name and assessment number and be labelled with your name and student ID number.

If you require further support for academic writing, you should seek help from members of staff in The Bothy on campus. For each assignment or project, you will be given more specific guidelines. It is essential that you follow these guidelines as they are there to help you.

Assessment of your Work

Throughout your course, your work will be assessed in a number of different ways, depending on the different criteria in individual units.

The majority of courses delivered at UHI Inverness are assessed partly or wholly on a continuous basis – in other words, you will be assessed on parts of your work as you go along rather than all of it at the end of the unit. This assessment is carried out by the lecturer teaching the unit.

So that assessments can be fair to all students, and whoever teaches them, internal assessments are checked by other lecturers teaching the same, or similar, units. This is a process called 'internal verification'.

Internal assessment is not just about judging whether you have passed or failed. It also provides both you and your lecturers with important information about what you are doing well and where you have shortcomings in your knowledge, understanding or skills. Assessment is closely linked to the learning process in the sense that the feedback you will receive from your lecturers will help you improve your work in the future.

Finally, a range of courses delivered at UHI Inverness are assessed by means of an externally-set and externally-assessed examination or project. The examining body will inform you directly whether or not you have completed your course successfully. Lecturers are not in a position to tell you whether you have passed or failed, until they have been informed by the examining body (usually at the same time as you will know directly from the examining body). If in doubt, please ask your lecturer about the procedures used.

Re-assessment of your Work

If you are unsuccessful in an internal assessment, you will be offered the opportunity to be re-assessed (remediate your work). Depending on the arrangements for re-assessment laid down for a particular unit, this may involve retaking either the whole assessment or just part of it. You will normally only be allowed one (or, in exceptional circumstances, two) re-assessment opportunities. Your lecturers will be able to give you more information about re-assessment for your course.

Submission of your Coursework

You should hand in or upload all coursework to the appropriate lecturer. All coursework for assessment will have a specified deadline for submission. It is essential that you meet the submission deadline to ensure fairness amongst all students and to enable staff to mark efficiently. Your subject lecturer may allow you an extension to a submission date if there are valid (mitigating) circumstances affecting your ability to meet the deadline.

If you are unwell when completing assessed coursework or sitting examinations or have any other specific difficulties that may affect your performance in assessed coursework or examinations, you should notify your PDA as soon as possible, and make immediate arrangements for medical certificates or other letters of support to be submitted.

Mitigating Circumstances

There may be times when you cannot complete assessments to the best of your ability, are unable to attend an examination, or are unable to meet an assessment deadline due to adverse circumstances beyond your control e.g. illness or a serious accident at the time of assessment. As a result, students can request that these circumstances are taken into consideration by UHI Inverness. Submitting a request does not automatically guarantee that it will be accepted.

For more information on Mitigating Circumstances please ask your PDA. This process will also be covered during the Induction process.

Academic Appeals Process

There may be an occasion you wish to appeal against a result provided by a member of lecturing staff or against a decision of the Progression Board.

Full details of the procedure to follow can be found on the publications page of our website About us - Publications \(uhi.ac.uk\). You should contact your PDA for advice and guidance as a first step.

Malpractice

Your qualification is likely to be accredited by an Awarding Body, for example, SQA, City and Guilds, EAL, IMI. It is important that any work you, or other students in your class produce is your own work. Awarding Bodies have regulations in place about this; and what to do if we think someone is not following the requirements.

Malpractice – SQA definition

Malpractice means any act, default, or practice (whether deliberate or resulting from neglect or default) which is a breach of assessment requirements including any act, default, or practice which:

- Compromises, attempts to compromise, or may compromise the process of assessment, the integrity of any SQA qualification or the validity of a result or certificate; and / or
- Damages the authority, reputation, or credibility of SQA or any officer, employee or agent of SQA.

Malpractice can arise for a variety of reasons:

- Some incidents are intentional and aim to give an unfair advantage or disadvantage in an examination or assessment (deliberate non-compliance);
- Some incidents arise due to ignorance of SQA requirements, carelessness, or neglect in applying the requirements (maladministration).

Malpractice can include both maladministration in the assessment and delivery of SQA qualifications and deliberate non-compliance with SQA requirements.

Candidate Malpractice

‘Candidate or student malpractice’ means malpractice by a candidate in the course of any examination or assessment.

Candidate malpractice can occur in, but is not limited to:

- the preparation and authentication of coursework
- the presentation of practical work
- the compilation of portfolios of candidate/assessment evidence
- conduct during an internal assessment

Allegations of candidate malpractice will be dealt with using the Student Malpractice Procedure. The Student Malpractice Procedure applies to all students.

Non-Academic Misconduct

Where other issues arise which need to be dealt with in a formal manner and in order to protect the student involved and in line with UHI Inverness processes the Student Disciplinary Procedure must be followed.

Reporting Requirements

Candidates should report any suspected case of malpractice:

- By candidates to the delivering lecturer, their Personal Development Adviser / Personal Academic Tutor, or other member of teaching staff
- By members of staff to the delivering lecturer, their Personal Development Adviser / Personal Academic Tutor, or other member of teaching staff

Appeals against Malpractice

Candidates have the right to appeal any malpractice decision made against them. The appeals process is contained within each of the procedures noted above. This includes the timescales for appeal.

Candidates have the right to appeal to SQA, or other awarding body, where:

- the centre has conducted an investigation, the candidate disagrees with the outcome and has exhausted the centre's appeals process
- SQA has conducted an investigation and the candidate disagrees with the decision

For regulated qualifications only:

Candidates have the right to request a review by the appropriate regulator (SQA Accreditation, Ofqual or Qualifications Wales) of the awarding body's process in reaching a decision in an appeal of a malpractice decision for qualifications subject to regulation.

Complaints

Complaints Process – Students

UHI Inverness provide two opportunities to resolve complaints internally: frontline resolution (non-complex issues) and investigation i.e. the issues raised are complex and require detailed investigation.

You can discuss your complaint with any member of our staff, by phone, in person or if you prefer in writing to Quality.ic@uhi.ac.uk or by using the complaint form on the website.

If we can, we hope to resolve all complaints in 5 working days. If your complaint is more complex, we may need to take longer in order to investigate it thoroughly. This can take up to 20 working days, if we need any longer we will let you know.

Complaint Guidelines

Full details about what you can complain about, timelines and the process can be found in the 5.-Complaints-Handling-Procedure-Part-5---Complaints-procedure---a-guide-for-complainants.pdf \(uhi.ac.uk\)

Student Code of Conduct

The Student Code of Conduct sets out expectations for all students enrolled at UHI Inverness and applies to both physical and online environments.

Students are expected to observe the Student Code of Conduct throughout their studies and are expected to:

- Take responsibility for their own actions and conduct;
- Behave in a manner that fosters respect and understanding between all members of our community;
- Act within the law and not to engage in any activity or behaviour that is likely to bring UHI and partners into disrepute;
- Value the good relationships UHI and partners have with local communities, businesses and other organisations;
- Avoid behaving or communicating in ways that are likely to cause offence, e.g., using abusive or obscene language or engaging in discriminatory or anti-social behaviour;
- Treat all UHI and partner property with care;
- Comply with requests of members of staff;
- Adhere to health and safety policies and protocols (including fire alarms) and to comply with any temporary changes during maintenance and repairs

Your PDA can provide you with an extended copy of the Code of conduct which provides specific examples of behaviours which would be regarded as misconduct.

Reporting misconduct

You can report suspected breaches of the Student Code of Conduct to any member of staff. Should the report be of a personal or sensitive nature, you can discuss the issue with your PDA or speak to a representative from the Highlands and Islands Students Association (HISA) or contact the Student Support team.

StudentSupport.ic@uhi.ac.uk

Partnership Agreement

Students who enrol on courses with UHI Inverness are entering into a partnership. Our Partnership Agreement is an online tool you can access via MyDay and involves a commitment from you, the learner, to engage positively with your studies and a commitment from the UHI Inverness to provide appropriate support to you throughout your course. Working in partnership we hope to create an excellent experience for all involved.

Your Personal Development Adviser (FE) or Personal Academic Tutor (HE), will discuss our Partnership Agreement and will outline the entitlements students of UHI Inverness have, along with our collective responsibilities.

Attendance and Part Time Employment

Your success as a student depends on full and regular attendance of all classes. You should inform your Personal Development Advisor (FE) or Personal Academic Tutor (HE), as soon as possible if you have problems with attendance and follow the Attendance Procedure. Our records show that students who do not attend all their classes have a very high risk of failure. We recognise that you may need to undertake part-time work, but we strongly advise you not to take employment of more than 15 hours a week if you are a full-time student. Should you need to take employment of more than 15 hours per week we recommend you register as a part time student. A full-time student is expected to follow their timetable and negotiate work times around it.

As part of the Partnership Agreement, you commit to attending classes on time. Attendance at class is imperative; if you do not attend, you are unlikely to successfully complete coursework, or be able to sit and pass assessments. We will do everything we can to support your success, but you have to be here to enable us!

Student Funding and Finance

Your attendance is also important for your funding. Students are expected to attend all their classes and engage appropriately in their studies. You must advise UHI Inverness, each and every day (or part of a day), of an absence using the ABSENCE REPORTING PROCEDURE detailed in the link below:

Student Support Services - Attendance and Absence \(uhi.ac.uk\)

A member of the funding team will be on hand within the Student Support Centre to help you with any funding and finance related concerns you may have, including any difficulties you may encounter in applying for bursaries, and other funding options.

Every student's circumstances are different, so if you are unsure about what you should apply for come and speak to one of the funding team.

The Student Support Centre is open from 0830 – 16.30 Monday to Friday.

Caring Responsibilities, Estranged Students, Forces Families

We recognise that some students will face additional challenges due their circumstances. We are proud to be the first Tertiary Institution in Scotland to achieve the Going Further and Going Higher awards in recognition of the high level of support we provide to students who 'provide unpaid care for a friend or family member(s) who has an illness, disability, mental health problem or addiction and cannot cope without their support'. (Carers Trust Scotland). We are similarly proud of the support we provide to estranged students and are committed to the promises outlined in the Stand-Alone pledge. We recognise the additional challenges faced by students who are irreconcilably estranged from both biological or adoptive parents, or only living parent and will provide as much support as we can to overcome any barriers you may face.

UHI Stand Alone Pledge Inclusive support, additional needs, disability matters - Estranged Students \(uhi.ac.uk\)

We also work closely with a network of services who specialise in support for those who have served in the forces, and their families, within the Highland and Moray area. We recognise the challenges faced by forces families and align our support to the duties outlined in the Armed Forces Covenant.

Our Access and Transition Coordinators can provide a range of support to those facing additional barriers to learning, including, for example:

- Financial advice, support with budgeting
- Help with settling into UHI Inverness life and adapting to being a student
- Getting the most out of your student experience

This is a crucial role and excellent experience for anyone. Full training is provided for this role which many find valuable for their CV and future employment.

There is also a fun side to student life that HISA helps to facilitate. This is done through charity fundraisers which are held throughout the year such as Pink day and MFR Cash for Kids. HISA also have term time sports clubs, which include Badminton, Fitness Kick Boxing, Basketball, Football, MMA and Volleyball. There are also societies including Anime and Manga Society, Alliance, Dramatic Society, Games Development Society, and the campus Debating Society. There are always opportunities to create new clubs or societies too, so we welcome any suggestions! HISA also cater to your stationery needs by selling everything from pens and pencils to note pads, all available in the main campus shop.
