Welcome and Overview

We are delighted that you are coming to study for the Childhood Practice Level 6 course at Inverness College UHI and we'd like to take this opportunity to warmly welcome you. We've produced this course handbook to help you make the most of your time with us and to help familiarise you with your course. There is a considerable amount of information contained in this handbook, some of which will be of greater relevance to you as you work through the course. It's here to dip in and out of when you feel you need a bit more information at any time.

Aims of your Course

The aims of your course are:

- To understand aspects of child development and factors that influence development from pre-birth to 21
- To understand theories of development and the way these are applied to working with children and young people
- To develop an awareness of initiatives and/or strategies used to inform current childhood practice
- To develop an awareness of current services for children and young people
- To understand the role and responsibilities of professionals and others in contributing to the development of children and young people
- To develop positive attitudes that reflect the Codes of Practice of the SSSC
- To experience work placement in the early education and childcare sector
- To demonstrate competency as a support worker within this setting
- To become a reflective practitioner
- To develop skills of investigating, analysing, evaluating and presenting information using a range of communication and ICT skills
- To develop skills in problem solving
- To develop skills in working with others both in college and on placement

Structure of your Course

The Childhood Practice Level 6 provides a balance of theory, knowledge and practical experiences designed to support effective practice with children and young people. It includes topics such as; theoretical approaches to child development, planning and delivering supportive play and the safeguarding and well-being of children.

The course consists of 4 elements:

- The Childcare and Development Higher
- National Progression Award Units
- The SVQ Level 2
- Core skills

The course contains 16 unit credits and a placement element (1 further credit is available for the completion of the Higher Project). The units you will study are listed below.

The units which make up this qualification are approved and recognised by the Scottish Qualification Authority (SQA) and the Scottish Social Services Council (SSSC).

On successful completion of the course you will be qualified to work in a support role within a wide range of settings.

Progression Routes to Further Study and Employment

This course of study paves the way to progression to other programmes such as the HNC Childhood Practice Level 7 and SVQ III Social Services (Children & Young People) or the HNC Social Care/SVQ III Social Care.

All of these courses are very popular and get full very quickly. It is advised that you apply before the 15th January deadline (which is the UCAS deadline). Applications received by this date are given priority.

If you apply to Inverness College UHI for a place on the HNC Childhood Practice, you will be required to have the Childhood Practice Level 6 award with an A-C grade in the Childcare and Development Higher, plus satisfactory references from college tutors and placement supervisors.

The curriculum area map clearly shows where this programme sits within this wider curriculum area and the future progression routes which will be open to you after successful completion of this course.

Other options may include:-

- A post as an Early Years Practitioner; Learning Support Assistant; Nanny; Childminder; Classroom Assistant; Play worker – further training may still be required.
- Taking an SVQ III in Social Services: Children and Young People
- BA Child and Youth Studies (Degree)
- A PGDE in Teaching.
- A HNC in other areas such as health care or social care.

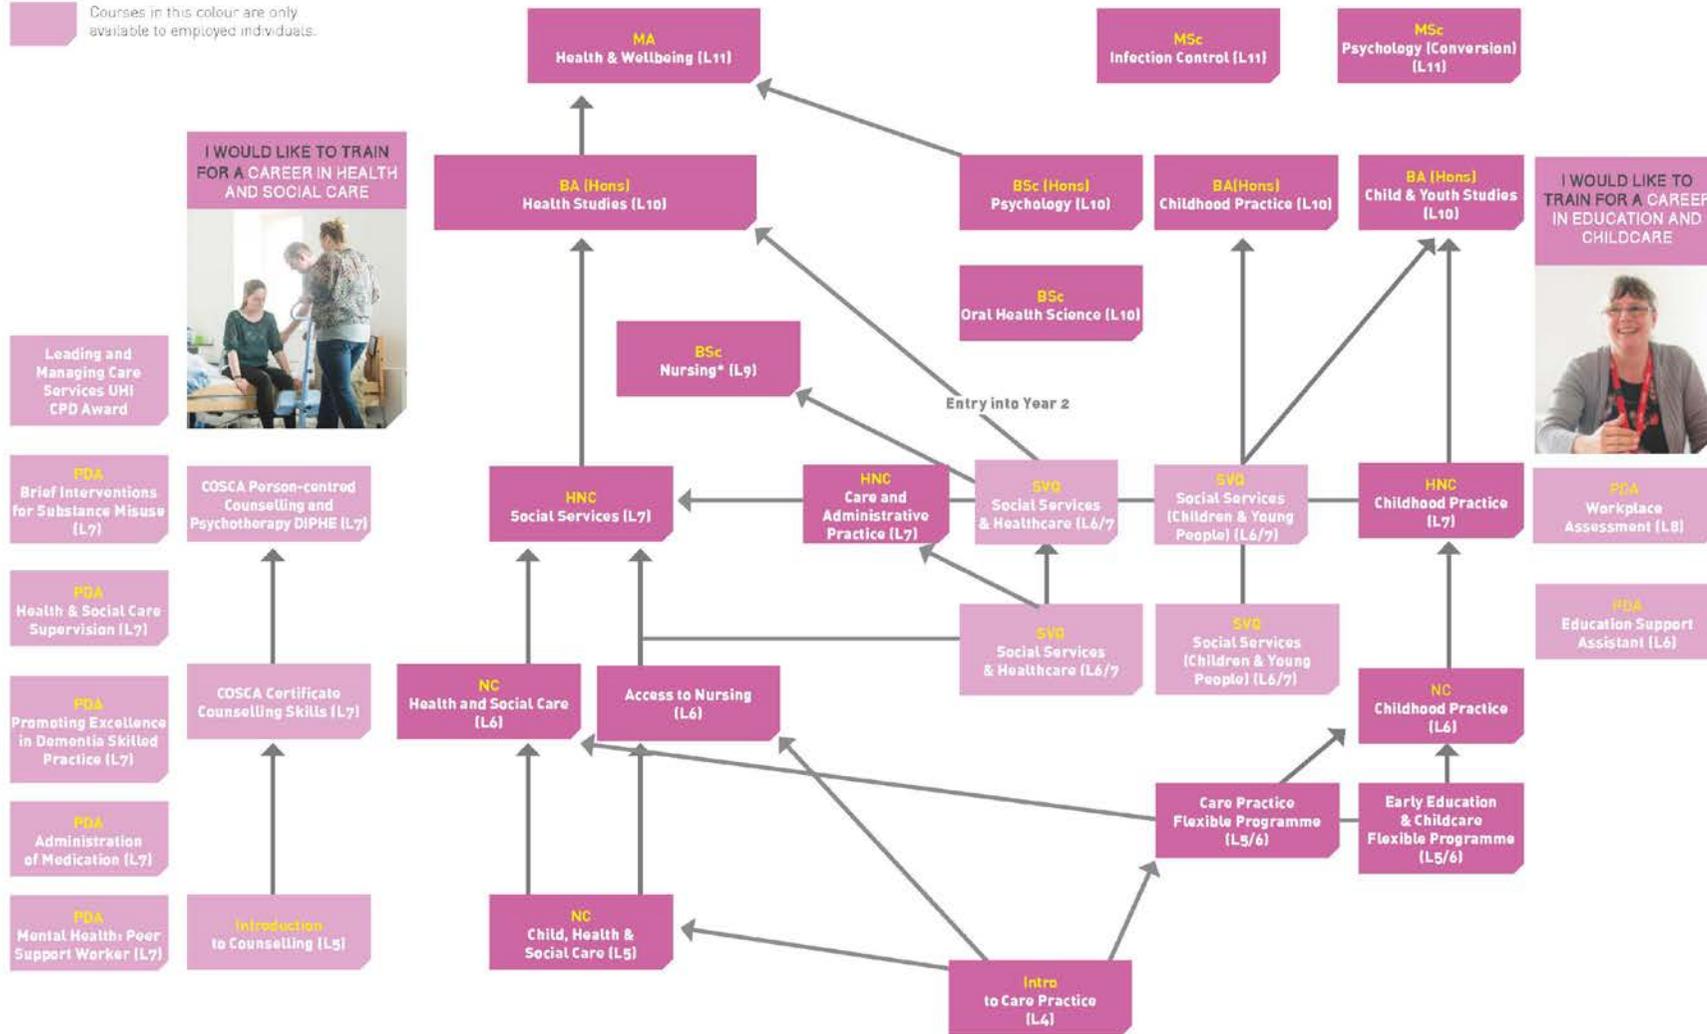

You can discuss all of these options along with any other queries with your PDA during your personal interviews throughout the year and specifically when discussing progression.

START TOMORROW TODAY

Courses in this colour are only available to employed individuals.

Personal Support Whilst Learning

Congratulations on taking a brave step onto a new pathway to learning! We understand that through the course of your learning journey you may experience personal difficulties or life events which make studying more challenging. Our aim is to offer the care, support and guidance required to help you achieve your goal of successfully completing your studies. Your PDA will meet with you for regular timetabled workshops as well as offering 1-1 support.

If you are studying full time at SCQF Level 6 or below (Further Education FE level) you will be assigned to a Personal Development Advisor (PDA).

Your PDA should be your first point of contact for any support needs, queries or concerns you may have.

Your PDA

We have a new team of Personal Development Advisers (PDA) who will be available to provide advice and guidance to support your personal development while you study with us. The PDA is not academic support but is a focal point for pastoral care and will work in partnership with your academic teams to support you whilst you study.

Your PDA is Alan Ross and can be contacted via;

Mobile: 07384246335

alan.ross.ic@uhi.ac.uk

If you need to see your PDA during College hours you should make an appointment via email or in an emergency, ask at reception to see if your adviser is available.

General Student support will also be offered through the Student Support Centre which is open during term time from 8.30am to 5pm, Monday to Friday.

PDA

You will be scheduled to have specific time with your PDA throughout the course of the year. It is very important that you attend these sessions as they are designed to help you manage your wellbeing and ability to study effectively.

Sessions could include:

- Induction and orientation information
- Team building activities
- Wellbeing and resilience tools
- Coping with stress strategies
- Employability and careers advice and preparation
- Finance and budgeting information, support and guidance

Your PDA can also help you with a wide range of other concerns you may have such as:

- Attendance and attainment concerns
- Course information and choices
- Finance – Funding support, applying for hardship funds
- Help filling in forms - Course and funding applications
- Accommodation - Help and advice on where to look
- Childcare information - College and local nurseries
- Progression after your course - What to do next and where to look

Your PDA can also refer you to more specialist services for wellbeing, counselling, general and additional support for learning, funding and transitions.

This list is by no means exhaustive. Your individual needs are important to us, whatever the situation, we will listen and try to help.

If your PDA is not available, you can drop into the Student Support Centre behind reception and the team will aim to provide the answers you need or find someone who can.

The Student Support Centre is open from 8.30am - 5pm Monday to Friday.

Alternatively you can contact us –

Course Work

It is important for your own development that you become a responsible learner. This includes learning to manage your own time, as well as seeking information beyond that which you are given in class. You should allocate the equivalent of at least one full day across the week for personal study and adhere to that, using your diary to plan and prioritise your learning. Poor time management can increase the pressure you experience when assessments are due. Being well organised and setting time aside for personal study will increase your chances of success.

Presentation of work

It is essential that any coursework handed in or uploaded into your e-portfolio is well presented, word-processed in Arial font 12 and spaced 1.5; It should also have a title including the unit name and number and be labelled with your name and college ID number.

You should always read over a piece of work before you submit it, in particular, check for spelling and grammatical mistakes. If you require further support for writing you should seek help from members of staff in the Skills Zone. For each assignment or project you will be given more specific guidelines. It is essential that you follow these guidelines as they are there to help you.

Assessment of your Work

Throughout your course, your work will be assessed in a number of different ways, depending on the different criteria in individual units.

The majority of courses delivered in the College are assessed partly or wholly on a continuous basis – in other words, you will be assessed on parts of your work as you go along rather than all of it at the end of the unit. This assessment is carried out by the lecturer teaching the unit.

So that assessments can be fair to all students, and whoever teaches them, internal assessments are checked by other lecturers teaching the same, or similar, units. This is a process called 'internal verification'.

Internal assessment is not just about judging whether you have passed or failed. It also provides both you and your lecturers with important information about what you're doing well and where you have shortcomings in your knowledge, understanding or skills. Assessment is closely linked to the learning process in the sense that the feedback you will receive from your lecturers will help you improve your work in the future.

Finally, a range of courses delivered in the College are assessed by means of an externally-set and externally-assessed examination or project. The examining body will inform you directly whether or not you have completed your course successfully. College lecturers are not in a position to tell you whether you have passed or failed, until they have been informed by the examining body (usually at the same time as you will know directly from the examining body). If in doubt, please ask your lecturer about the procedures used.

Re-assessment of your Work

If you are unsuccessful in an internal assessment, you will be offered the opportunity to be re-assessed (remediate your work). Depending on the arrangements for re-assessment laid down for a particular unit, this may involve retaking either the whole assessment or just part of it. You will normally only be allowed one (or, in exceptional circumstances, two) re-assessment opportunities. Your tutors will be able to give you more information about re-assessment for your course.

Submission of your Coursework

You should hand in or upload all coursework to the appropriate lecturer. All coursework for assessment will have a specified deadline for submission. It is essential that you meet the submission deadline to ensure fairness amongst all students and to enable staff to mark efficiently. Your subject lecturer may allow you an extension to a submission date if there are valid (mitigating) circumstances affecting your ability to meet the deadline.

If you are unwell when completing assessed coursework or sitting examinations, or have any other specific difficulties that may affect your performance in assessed coursework or examinations, you should notify your PDA as soon as possible, and make immediate arrangements for medical certificates or other letters of support to be submitted.

Mitigating Circumstances

There may be times when you cannot complete assessments to the best of their ability, are unable to attend an examination, or are unable to meet an assessment deadline due to adverse circumstances beyond your control e.g. illness or a serious accident at the time of assessment. As a result, students can request that these circumstances are taken into consideration by the university. Submitting a request does not automatically guarantee that it will be accepted.

For more information on Mitigating Circumstances please ask your PDA. This process should also be covered during the Induction process.

Malpractice

Malpractice – definition

Malpractice means any act, default or practice (whether deliberate or resulting from neglect or default) which is a breach of SQA assessment requirements including any act, default or practice which:

- Compromises, attempts to compromise or may compromise the process of assessment, the integrity of any SQA qualification or the validity of a result or certificate; and/ or
- Damages the authority, reputation or credibility of SQA or any officer, employee or agent of SQA.

Malpractice can arise for a variety of reasons:

- Some incidents are intentional and aim to give an unfair advantage or disadvantage in an examination or assessment (deliberate non-compliance);
- Some incidents arise due to ignorance of SQA requirements, carelessness or neglect in applying the requirements (maladministration).

Malpractice can include both maladministration in the assessment and delivery of SQA qualifications and deliberate non-compliance with SQA requirements.

Candidate Malpractice

‘Candidate or student malpractice’ means malpractice by a candidate in the course of any examination or assessment.

Candidate malpractice can occur in, but is not limited to:

- the preparation and authentication of coursework
- the presentation of practical work
- The compilation of portfolios of candidate/assessment evidence

- Conduct during an internal assessment

Allegations of candidate malpractice will be dealt with using the Student Malpractice Procedure. The Student Malpractice Procedure applies to all students. Where a student is registered on a programme validated by another awarding body, including SQA, the specific action to be taken may be influenced by the requirements of that body.

Candidates will be notified about the Student Malpractice Procedure, their right to appeal and additional guidance through the student induction process.

Non-Academic Misconduct

Where other issues arise which need to be dealt with in a formal manner and in order to protect the student involved and in line with College processes the Student Disciplinary Procedure must be followed.

Reporting Requirements

Candidates should report any suspected case of malpractice:

- By candidates to the delivering lecturer, their PDA, or other member of teaching staff
- By members of staff to the delivering lecturer, their PDA, or other member of teaching staff

Appeals

Candidates have the right to appeal any malpractice decision made against them. The appeals process is contained within each of the procedures noted above. This includes the timescales for appeal.

In the case where SQA, or other awarding body, is investigating the allegation of malpractice, ICUHI has the right to appeal a decision where a case of reported malpractice by the centre has been confirmed.

There is also the right to appeal a decision in the case of suspected malpractice by a candidate reported by ICUHI to SQA.

Candidates have the right to appeal to SQA where:

- ◆ the centre has conducted an investigation, the candidate disagrees with the outcome and has exhausted the centre's appeals process
- ◆ SQA has conducted an investigation and the candidate disagrees with the decision

For regulated qualifications only:

Candidates have the right to request a review by the appropriate regulator (SQA Accreditation, Ofqual or Qualifications Wales) of the awarding body's process in reaching a decision in an appeal of a malpractice decision for qualifications subject to regulation.

Complaints

Complaints Process – Students

The College provides two opportunities to resolve complaints internally: frontline resolution (non-complex issues) and investigation i.e. the issues raised are complex and require detailed investigation.

You can discuss your complaint with any member of our staff, by phone, in person or if you prefer in writing to quality.ic@uhi.ac.uk.

If we can, we hope to resolve all complaints in 5 working days. If your complaint is more complex, we may need to take longer in order to investigate it thoroughly. This can take up to 20 working days, if we need any longer we'll let you know.

Complaint Guidelines

A student may not complain about academic judgement; the College has an internal appeals process which can be used for this purpose.

Candidates on regulated qualifications, also have the right to complain to SQA Accreditation or other regulatory awarding bodies once they have exhausted both the College's complaints procedure and the SQA awarding body's complaints procedure. Students may escalate their complaint to SPSO if it relates to issues other than assessment related matters.

Partnership Agreement

Students who enroll on courses with Inverness College UHI are entering into a partnership. Our Partnership Agreement involves a commitment from you, the learner, to engage positively with your studies and a commitment from the College to provide appropriate support to you throughout your course. Working in partnership we hope to create an excellent experience for all involved.

Your PDA will discuss our Partnership Agreement and will outline the entitlements students of Inverness College UHI have along with our collective responsibilities.

Attendance and Part Time Employment

Your success as a student depends on full and regular attendance of all classes. You should inform your PDA as soon as possible if you have problems with attendance and follow the Attendance Procedure. Our records show that students who do not attend all their classes have a very high risk of failure. We recognise that you may need to undertake part-time work, but we strongly advise you not to take employment of more than 15 hours a week if you are a full time student. Should you need to take employment of more than 15 hours per week we recommend you register as a part time student. A full time student is expected to follow their timetable and negotiate work times around it.

As part of the Partnership Agreement you commit to attending classes on time. Attendance at class is imperative; if you do not attend, you are unlikely to successfully complete coursework, or be able to sit and pass assessments. We'll do everything we can to support your success but you have to be here to enable us!

Student Funding and Finance

Your attendance is also important for your funding. Students are expected to attend all their classes and engage appropriately in their studies. You must advise the College, each and every day (or part of a day), of an absence using the ABSENCE REPORTING PROCEDURE detailed in the link below:

<https://www.inverness.uhi.ac.uk/students/student-support/attendance-and-absence>

A member of the funding team will be on hand within the Student Support Centre to help you with any funding and finance related concerns you may have, including; SAAS applications and any difficulties you may encounter in applying for Disabled Students Allowance, Bursaries, and other funding options. Every students' circumstances are different so if you are unsure about what you should apply for come over and speak to one of the funding team.

The Student Support Centre is open from 8.30am - 5pm Monday to Friday.

Care Leavers

We have a dedicated Transitions Coordinator, to help students whilst at college who are in or have left care. Examples of care are; residential care, foster care, and cared for by friends or relatives (other than parents).

We are committed to all our students and we will do all we can to make your experience here enjoyable and rewarding. At times young people who are in or who have left care may need extra support to deal with the challenges of being a student and College life. Our Transitions Coordinator can provide a range of support:

- Financial advice
- Help with settling in to college life
- Getting the most out of your student experience
- Advice and support finding accommodation
- General advice and guidance

For more information or to make an appointment then please contact:

Additional Support Needs

The Additional Support Needs Team is available to help you with any additional support you may need due to any difficulty you may have, such as Dyslexia or Autism, or any disability. Our team can work with you on a one to one basis, in small groups or in-class according to your need. Equipment and assistive materials can be provided for students with Specific Learning Difficulties (SLD). If you have a support need you may be entitled to additional assessment arrangements such as extra time, the provision of a reader/scribe or the use of a computer. We'd encourage you to get in touch with our team if you want to discuss your study needs.

Library and Learning Resource Centre

The Library and Learning Resource Centre are situated on the Second Floor, and offer study facilities and resources to support your course. The Library offers quiet study space, and has 16 PCs and 16 study booths, as well as over 30,000 books. The Learning Resource Centre is the open plan study area and has over 100 PCs, along with group study spaces. Both areas offer printing and copying facilities, and help is at hand from the Library team if you need assistance in finding the resources for your course.

Recommended Texts / Reading List

The following are considered to be core texts for your course:

- Meggit, C (2012). Child Development an Illustrated Guide
- Miller, Gibb (2015) Care in Practice. Available as an ebook here: link <http://libcat.uhi.ac.uk/record=b1794399~S3>

You can take out 15 books at a time from the Library and there is a drop-box outside the main doors into the Library where you can leave books if the Library is shut.

The Students' Association and Class Representatives

You can find the Highlands & Islands Students' Association (HISA) to the right hand side of the front entrance in the Atrium. HISA's main role is to represent students and therefore it is so important. Students are represented largely through the role of class representatives. Class reps are chosen for each class by the class and will act on their behalf to represent their views and opinions at the Student Representation Committee (SRC). This is a crucial role and excellent experience for anyone. Full training is provided for this role which many find valuable for their CV and future employment.

There is also a fun side to student life that HISA helps to facilitate. This is done through charity fundraisers which are held throughout the year such as Pink day and MFR Cash for Kids. HISA also have term time sports clubs, these include Badminton, Fitness Kick Boxing, Basketball, Football, MMA and Volleyball. There are also societies including Anime and Manga Society, Alliance, Dramatic Society, Games Development Society and the campus Debating Society. There are always opportunities to create new clubs or societies too so we welcome any suggestions! HISA also cater to your stationary needs by selling everything from pens and pencils to pen drives and note pads, all available in the Inverness College shop.
